NOTIN' THE NOLES

EBERLE LEADS OFF FIELD, ON FIELD

» Redshirt junior center Alec Eberle will miss the spring with an injury, but there is not doubt he will have an impact on his teammates. The Mechanicsville, Va., native has made 19 consecutive starts for the Noles and will be FSU's most experienced offensive lineman this fall.

» He's also a leader off the field. He was named to the AFCA's Good Works Team in 2016 as he was recognized for his work as Florida State's president of its Uplifting Athletes Chapter which raises funds for rare diseases.

PLENTY OF DEPTH, OPPORTUNITIES ON THE LINE

» Florida State loses left tacke Rod Johnson, who left early for the NFL Draft following back-to-back seasons where he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's top offensive lineman.

» The Noles also lose guards Kareem Are (17 starts) and Wilson Bell (18 starts) to graduation. Bell was a reserve for most of the 2016 season.

» The Noles have plenty of potential stars ready to step up, however. In addition to Eberle (19 starts), the Seminoles have several linemen with starting experience, including redshirt junior guard/tackle Derrick Kelly (6 starts), redshirt sophomore guard Cole Minshew (3 starts) senior tackle Rick Leonard (6 starts), redshirt junior tackle Brock Ruble (13 starts), redshirt junior center Corey Martinez (3 starts) and sophomore guard Landon Dickerson (7) who was on track to be a freshman All-American until he was sidelined with a knee injury.

MCFADDEN A GAME CHANGER AS SOPH

» Junior Tarvarus McFadden burst onto the scene in 2016 by tying for the nation's lead with eight interceptions in his first year as a starter. He was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy given to the nation's top defensive player and collected the Jack Tatum award as the nation's top defensive back from the Columbus Touchdown Club. He grabbed First Team All-America honors from FWAA and Phil Steele.

» McFadden's eight picks are tied for the second-most in FSU history with Monk Bonasorte (8, 1979) and Curt Campbell (8, 1951). Terrell Buckley set the school record with 12 picks in 1991 en route to the Jim Thorpe Award.

» McFadden's eight picks are tied for the eighth-most in a single-season in ACC history.

NOLES HAVE A FIVE-GAME WIN STREAK

» Florida State will take a five-game win streak into 2017 after closing the 2016 season with victories vs. NC State (24-20), Boston College (45-7), Syracuse (45-14), No. 13 Florida (31-13) and No. 6 Michigan in the Orange Bowl (33-32). Only Oklahoma (10), Southern California (9) and Stanford (6) have longer win streaks among Power 5 teams. (Miami and Clemson also have won five straight)

WHO'S NEXT?

» Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher has coached a consensus All-American every year since taking over the Seminoles' program in 2010. RB Dalvin Cook and DE DeMarcus Walker became the 11th and 12th consensus All-Americans under Fisher in 2016. Cook is also likely to extend Florida State's streak of first round selections to five straight years. He could be the ninth first round pick under Fisher.

NATION'S BEST IN THE RED ZONE

» Florida State led the country in red zone scoring percentage again in 2016, converting 55 of 57 attempts for a 96.5 score percentage.

» It was the highest percentage by college football team since FSU converted 97.3 percent of its red zone attempts (71-73) in 2013.

» During Jimbo Fisher's tenure as a head coach, the Seminoles are converting 91.5 percent (386-422) of their red zone trips - the best mark in the country since 2010.

NO BACK-TO-BACK LOSSES HERE

» At 76 games, the Seminoles have the longest current streak without losing back-to-back games, dating back to the 2011 season.

NATION'S LONGEST STREAK SINCE BACK-TO-BACK LOSSES

» Florida State - 76
» Clemson - 71
» Alabama - 44
» Ohio State - 41

SPRING INJURY REPORT

The following players will miss spring practice due to injury:

» OL Landon Dickerson
» C Alec Eberle
» TE Jeremy Kerr
» DB Marcus Lewis
» DB Tarvarus McFadden

DEFENSE LOADED WITH EXPERIENCE

» DeMarcus Walker's presence and production will be missed on the Seminole defense but FSU will return a wealth of players with extensive experience. Heading into 2017, the FSU defense will return 15 players that played in either 12 or all 13 games last season. On top of that experience, Nate Andrews will be back along with his 45 games played as will Derwin James who played in all 13 games as a freshman in 2015.

JIMBO'S SEC-CESS

» In 10 career games against schools from the SEC, Jimbo Fisher is 9-1 at Florida State. In addition to the annual game against Florida, Fisher's FSU teams have recorded wins over Ole Miss (2016), Auburn (2013) and South Carolina (2101).

» Florida State is averaging 30.1 points over those 10 games and outscoring opponents by 12.2 points per game (30.2-17.4). In five of the 10 games under Fisher versus SEC competition, FSU has scored 31 points or more six times.

WELCOME TO ATLANTA

» For a long stretch, the last place in the world FSU wanted to play was Atlanta. From 1952-1975, the Seminoles posted an 0-8-1 record in Atlanta with eight of those games coming against Georgia Tech (0-7-1) and one versus LSU (0-1).

» Since 1983, the Seminoles fortunes have changed in the A-T-L as FSU is 8-4 in its last 12 games played in Atlanta.

» Florida State opens the 2017 season in Atlanta at Mercedes-Benz Stadium against Alabama on Sept. 2 in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game.

NOLES AT NEUTRAL SITES

» Alabama holds the series lead all-time with FSU at 2-1-1 but in neutral site match-ups between the schools FSU actually holds the edge (1-0-1). In general, Florida State has been successful in regular season games played at neutral sites.

» Since 1976, the year coach Bobby Bowden came to Tallahassee, FSU is 13-1 in non-conference, neutral site games. The lone loss was a 30-26 defeat at the hands of a Brett Favre-led Southern Mississippi team in 1989. If you include regular season conference games played at a neutral site, the Noles' record increases to 17-1 over the last 40 years.

MAKING THE SWITCH

» Senior DB Ermon Lane became the latest Nole to find success after switching from offense to defense in 2016. A former WR, Lane moved to S and contributed 37 tackles and made five starts.

» Senior RT Rick Leonard is another position switch success story for the Noles. Leonard was a reserve DE before moving to the OL and starting six games in 2016.

» Leonard and Lane join NFL players Xavier Rhodes (WR to CB), Cameron Erving (DT to OL) and Karlos Williams (DB to RB) who have found great success following position changes.

Seven years into what has already become a legendary head coaching career, Florida State's Jimbo Fisher has established the Seminoles as one of the nation's premier college football programs and himself as one of the elite coaches of the current era.

Heading into his eighth season, Fisher has won five bowl games, including the 2013 National Championship and two Orange Bowl titles. He has the highest winning percentage in ACC history (.821) and his 78 total wins are the most by a Power Five coach through their first seven seasons in modern history. Fisher leads all active coaches in wins per season (11.1) and guided the Seminoles to three consecutive ACC Championships from 2012-2014, winning a school- and ACC-record 29 straight games in the process.

Fisher continues to develop NFL players at a higher rate than any head coach in the country. Since taking over in 2010, 38 of Fisher's protégés have been selected by NFL teams and 44 FSU players were on NFL rosters in 2016, giving Florida State the most alumni in the league.

Fisher's goal when he succeeded iconic head coach Bobby Bowden was to foster a program that sustained success by graduating student-athletes, turning out elite players and winning consistently. The Clarksburg, West Virginia, native has done just that while developing a family atmosphere. Fisher treats his players like his own sons, challenging and praising when necessary to develop relentless competitors who thrive under adversity and have all the tools to become responsible young adults.

The results speak for themselves.

In his fourth year as head coach in 2013, Fisher planted the Seminoles back at the top of the college football world, leading Florida State to a 14-0 record en route to the final national championship of the BCS era. FSU has built on that success in the three seasons since. Fisher followed up the historic campaign – which included an NCAA record 723 points and the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (12.1) – by leading Florida State to the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinals at the Rose Bowl and capturing the Noles' third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 2014.

Despite losing 11 draft picks to the NFL the following year, Fisher led the Seminoles to a 10-3 mark and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl behind running back Dalvin Cook and All-Americans Jalen Ramsey and Roberto Aguayo.

The Seminoles returned to the Orange Bowl in 2016, joining Alabama as the nation's only programs to appear in five consecutive BCS/New Year's Six Bowls. Fisher's Noles rebounded from a 3-2 start in 2016 to go 7-1 down the stretch and finish with 10 wins for the sixth time in seven seasons. Led by ACC Rookie of the Year quarterback Deondre Francois and consensus All-Americans Cook and DeMarcus Walker, the Noles capped the season with a thrilling 33-32 victory over No. 6 Michigan in Miami.

Fisher and the Seminoles show no signs of slowing down, either. FSU returns 18 starters in 2017, and signed another top five recruiting class in February.

After 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher in 2010 took over for Bowden - the second-winningest coach in major college football. The Seminoles' first new coach in 35 years, and just the ninth in program history, Fisher hit the ground running and hasn't looked back. He led the Noles to a 10-4 mark in 2010 - the most wins by a first-year coach in FSU history - and the first of four ACC Atlantic Division titles. He followed with a 9-4 season in 2011 and improved to 12-2 in year three before the perfect 14-0 2013 campaign. The Seminoles finished 13-1 in 2014 ahead of back-to-back 10-3 campaigns in 2015 and 2016.

Known for his success in developing quarterbacks, Fisher has tutored three first-round NFL draft picks at the position while at FSU. That includes Jameis Winston, who became the first Seminole selected first overall in the NFL Draft, going to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015. Christian Ponder (12th overall pick, 2011) and current Buffalo Bills quarterback EJ Manuel (16th overall, 2013) also developed under Fisher. Fisher guided Winston to one of the greatest seasons ever by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while collecting several other awards in addition to consensus All-America honors.

Overall, Fisher has seen 38 Seminoles drafted into the NFL, including 17 first- or second-rounders. In 2016, Ramsey was selected with the No. 5 overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars, while Aguayo was picked in the second round (59th overall) to become the highest drafted kicker in over a decade.

Florida State has been just as dominant on the recruiting trail under Fisher, putting together six top-five classes in the last seven years. In addition to the No. 1-ranked 2016 class Fisher's 2011 class was ranked No. 1 or 2 by every major recruiting service. In 2017, the Seminoles' class ranked in the top five as FSU became the first program in history to sign three of Rivals' top five overall prospects.

Off the field, Fisher has been arguably even more impressive. Since becoming head coach in 2010, Fisher has been very active in several efforts to raise funds and awareness for children with diseases, including his foundation, Kidz1stFund.

Kidz1stFund was founded in 2011 and is a national fund to raise awareness and research funds to find a cure for Fanconi anemia, a rare blood disease that affects many, including Fisher's youngest son Ethan. Kidz1stFund has already donated more than $4.5 million to FA research at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital, the largest FA treatment center in the country.

In May 2015, Fisher helped Dick Vitale and the V Foundation raise $2.38 million in one night for pediatric cancer research at the longtime ESPN basketball analyst's 10th annual gala event. Fisher was honored at the event for his philanthropic efforts.

36.3 — The Seminoles points per game average since Fisher's 2010 debut, outscoring opponents by 17.8 points per game (36.3-18.5).

12 — Noles who have captured consensus All-America honors under Fisher: Cook, Walker ('16); Ramsey ('15); Aguayo, Jackson, O'Leary ('14); Joyner, Stork, Winston ('13); Werner ('12); Powell ('11); Hudson ('10).

38 — NFL Draft picks under Fisher, including 17 first- or second-round selections. The 29 picks from 2013-15 set a modern day, three-year record.

8 — Consecutive top 10 recruiting classes, including six in the top five. In 2017, the Seminoles had the No. 4 (ESPN) and No. 5 (Rivals, 247) class.

Saturday, Oct. 15, 2016
(14/16) Florida State 17,
(RV/RV) Wake Forest 6
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- Junior wide receiver Travis Rudolph recorded the second 200-yard receiving game of his career, finishing with 238 yards on 13 catches against the Demon Deacons in FSU's 17-6 win.
- The output is the fourth-highest receiving total in school history and the most since Peter Warrick had 249 against Clemson in 1997. Rudolph is just the third player in school history with multiple 200-yard receiving games (Ron Sellers, 5; Craphonso Thorpe, 2).
- The 13 receptions are tied for the fifth-most in school history with a number of players, most recently done by Rashad Greene in 2014 against Virginia.
- Running back Dalvin Cook hit the 100-yard mark for the fourth consecutive game, finishing with 115 yards on 25 carries for the Seminoles. It was the first 200-yard receiving, 100-yard rushing combo for FSU since Sellers had a school-record 260 through the air and Tom Bailey had 105 on the ground against Wake Forest in 1968.
- Quarterback Deondre Francois was solid on the day, finishing with 319 yards, his third game reaching the 300-yard plateau. He also recorded a two-yard touchdown run, his third of the season. His 11-yard touchdown pass to Auden Tate put the final points on the board for the Noles and was Tate's fourth touchdown catch, a team high.
- The FSU defense forced three Wake Forest turnovers. Sophomore defensive back Tarvarus McFadden intercepted John Wolford in the second quarter, his fifth interception of the season which leads the country. McFadden is the first FSU player with five interceptions in a season under Jimbo Fisher and the first since Patrick Robinson recorded six in 2007.
- Defensive end DeMarcus Walker had two more sacks, pushing his season total to 8.5, second-most in the country. His 21.0 career sacks are 11th in school history and just a half-sack away from the Top 10.
- Defenders Ermon Lane and Dontavious Jackson made their first starts of the season. For Lane, it was his first defensive start after making two at wide receiver in 2014. Jackson was the starting linebacker in place of Matthew Thomas, who was out for the first half.

- Doak Walker Award finalist Dalvin Cook finished with 153 yards on 26 carries, including a 17-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.
- Cook now has eight 100-yard rushing games in 2016 and 21 in his career, one behind Warrick Dunn's 22 for the most in school history. He is the second Seminole (Sammie Smith, 1986-88) to rush for over 100 yards against the Gators in three straight seasons.
- Cook recorded his school-record setting 45th rushing touchdown at the 4:46 mark of the first quarter. The 17-yard rush was Cook's 18th of the season, two off the school record set by Greg Allen in 1982 and one short of his 19 from last season.
- Cook's 47 total touchdowns are two behind Warrick Dunn's FSU record.
- Senior defensive end DeMarcus Walker recorded the first two fumble recoveries of his career, including one in the fourth quarter when he emerged with the ball following Derrick Nnadi's sack of Florida quarterback Austin Appleby at the Gator 28-yard line. That recovery helped set up the final Seminole touchdown of the game.
- True freshman defensive end Brian Burns recorded another 1.5 sacks against Florida, pushing his season total to 9.5. It ties for the 19th-most in single-season history at Florida State.
- Burns 9.5 sacks are the most in the country by a freshman.
- The Florida State defense held Florida without a third down conversion (0-12) in the win. It marks the first time since 2004 when FSU defeated North Carolina 38-16 at home that the Seminoles have held an opponent without a third down conversion. The Tar Heels went 0-for-11 in that contest.
- Travis Rudolph's four receptions in the third quarter extended his reception streak to 30 straight games, including a touchdown reception (46 yards) in four straight games.
